JX Gives Back Funding Guidelines

At JX, we are more than just trucks. Giving back and building up the communities in which we live and work is key to our success. JX Gives Back was established as a way to support our local and global communities. Please review the following guidelines for submitting donation requests:

JX Associates

Our Associates are the reason JX has made it more than 50 years as a leader in the transportation industry. Their well-being and involvement are important to us because it makes for better, more vibrant communities. For this reason, JX Gives Back takes all Associate needs requests, as well as funding requests, into consideration.

- All Associates must complete the Donation Request Form
- For donations meant to directly support an individual, the donation must first flow through a registered 501(c)(3). See below for further guidelines.

Charitable, Non-Profit Organizations

Charitable organizations are eligible for funding through JX Gives Back, if they meet the following criteria:

- Are a registered 501(c)(3)
- Align with the values and vision of JX Gives Back
- Provide all the necessary criteria through the online Donation Request Form
